HERZLICH WILLKOMMEN!

This is the first in a series of courses designed to give you the opportunity to learn to speak, read, write and understand German.

By the end of this class you will be able to

- interact with peers and strangers at the appropriate level of formality;
- provide and ask for basic information about yourself, your life and family, interests, academic endeavors, daily routines, as well as those of others;
- get around a German-speaking country, including travel, accommodation, finding and attending cultural events;
- identify important cultural differences between the US and German-speaking countries.

As with any foreign language, daily practice and study with German is indispensable to becoming proficient. Apart from studying and fine-tuning your German skills on a daily basis, it is of greatest importance that you attend class regularly and that you participate.

Course Materials:

For this course, you will need the Textbook, as well as and ONLINE Workbook & Lab Manual for Deutsch Na Klar! (5th edition). The use of both the online Work Book and Lab Manual is mandatory; for this, purchase an access key online or use the one that comes with the book (see instructions on last page). All online access keys are good through 2001 and for 24 months.

The Language Acquisition and Resource Center (LARC) located in 128-G provides an excellent language learning resource for you and offers extensive media resources as well as FREE tutoring.

Additionally, I strongly encourage you to listen to all audio materials of the texts in the book daily. This will strengthen your listening skills and deepen your comprehension of the language.

Please note that all work for the corresponding chapter in your online Workbook and Lab Manual is due the day of each chapter test and will be checked on that day; all online work will count toward your final grade!

Apart from using the book, you are encouraged to visit your professor's website at www.timjansa.com/german; Here you will find audio tracks, handouts, useful links and other reference materials that will make this a more efficient and fun learning experience.

The regular chapters (1-14) of the textbook, workbook and lab manual are structured as follows:

- After a short section called Alles klar? that introduces the chapter theme, the two primary sections of the chapter are Wörter im Kontext and Grammatik im Kontext.
- Wörter im Kontext develops the chapter themes and contains "Aktivitäten." Grammatik im Kontext contains grammar explanations, which are followed by "Übungen" (exercises). In a typical class, we will focus on one theme from the Wörter im Kontext and one grammar point from Grammatik im Kontext.

Prior to each class, you're expected to have read and thoroughly prepared the sections of the textbook to be covered that day (see the entries under "Vorbereitung" in the Syllabus), and do the corresponding "Aktivitäten" and "Übungen" in the online Workbook and Lab Manual as homework (see the entries under "Hausaufgaben" in the Syllabus).

I encourage the use of flash cards to build your vocabulary; apart from those cards you write at home, be prepared to bring some empty cards to class. Regardless of your study technique, you're expected to actively take notes in class and use them at home to go over everything covered in class.

If you have any questions about the best approach for you to study German successfully, please feel free to see me anytime during my office hours or contact me via e-mail.

Course Grade:

Your final grade will be calculated as follows:

5	Workbook checks (each chapter)	20%
5	Lab Manual checks (each chapter)	20%
4	Chapter Tests (grammar, vocabulary, culture, dictation)	40%
1	Comprehensive Final Exam (includes chapter 9 test)	20%

Your points	Course Letter Grade	GPA Equivalent
98.0-100% of final total points	A+	4.3
93.0-97.9% of final total points	A	4.0
90.0-92.9% of final total points	A-	3.7
87.0-89.9% of final total points	B+	3.3
83.0-86.9% of final total points	B	3.0
80.0-82.9% of final total points	B-	2.7
77.0-79.9% of final total points	C+	2.3
73.0-76.9% of final total points	C	2.0
70.0-72.9% of final total points	C-	1.7
60.0-69.9% of final total points	D	1.0
0-59.9% of total points	F	0

The online Workbook/Lab Manual grade will be calculated based on the number of correct answers for each exercise; please note that you can do each exercise as often as you wish and that the last attempt (hopefully with the most correct answers) will count toward your grade.

Attendance and Participation:

- You are solely responsible for keeping up with any assignments, important announcements, and handouts you may have missed in your absence by contacting your instructor or a fellow student. The point system will enable you to keep track of your standing and the syllabus is marked when Tests will be given and other assignments are due.
- You should plan to attend each every class meeting.
- All work is due on the assigned day; Workbook and Lab Manual checks will be performed on the scheduled day for each chapter test and access for this current chapter blocked; the online system is set up so that any answers submitted after the assigned due date will not count toward the final score.
- Regular and active participation in class will benefit you as well as your fellow students and affects your overall course grade by helping you acquire and retain things covered in class. It is therefore in your best interest to be involved.
- Should you be tardy to class, you're expected to enter the classroom and take your seat quietly.
- Class disruptions will not be tolerated under any circumstances!

Disclaimer:

Academic dishonesty can result in an academic and/or a disciplinary penalty. Academic penalty could be a failing grade in the assignment involved or in the course itself, and cannot be appealed. Disciplinary penalty could include suspension, expulsion, and/or transcript annotation. Consult the university policy on academic honesty (section 409) as outlined in On Campus: The Undergraduate Co-Curricular Affairs Handbook.

Ich wünsche Ihnen allen viel Spaß und viel Erfolg!
